

Sunday Judge: Lee Whittier

Lee Whittier began judging in 2000, and then took a hiatus for several years to work for The American Kennel Club as an Executive Field Representative in the Pacific Northwest. She returned to judging in 2011 and has judged dog shows around the world, from the United States to Asia. She currently judges the Working, Terrier, Toy and Non-Sporting groups, six Hounds breeds as well as Best In Show.

Lee bred and owned Rottweilers for over 25 years and is an American Rottweiler Club approved mentor and presenter. She currently breeds and shows Tibetan Terriers and is a TTCA approved mentor and presenter. Lee is a member of Dog Fanciers of Oregon, Vancouver Kennel Club, Terrier Association of Oregon and the Tibetan Terrier Club of America.

As an active club member, she has worked in the capacity of show chair, president, vice-president, secretary, board member and Constitution & By-laws Revision Committee member in several clubs. She stewards and contributes to her local all-breed clubs in many different capacities.

Additionally, Lee is the founder of Dog Show Mentor, a private, online educational program for owner handlers. She works with owner handlers on the mental and strategic skills of dog show competition.

She looks forward to her assignment at the Great Dane Club of Northern California Specialty.
